

I strongly disagree with letting the Banking industry begin by passing the no call list. It is great to not get many unwanted calls just when you are setting down to dinner.

Please do not let them rudely interrupt our quiet time.